FROELICK GALLERY celebrates its 30th Anniversary with a group exhibit of our outstanding artists.

Charles Froelick founded the gallery in 1995 in downtown Portland, Oregon to represent and exhibit the best artists, to support their professional careers, and importantly to sell their artwork as a key partner with their livelihood. The gallery works with artists, collectors, museums, writers, and institutions of all levels and from across the USA and internationally. Every unique artwork we present to the public is an act of a brave artist sharing their inspiration, and every sale of art is an act of patronage by the buyer, enabling the artists to make the next great artwork and enriching the collector's life. It is with deep gratitude and excitement that we sail into our 31st year. By the numbers, in the past three decades, Froelick Gallery has hosted over 450 solo shows, and sold over 6,500 artworks to over 2,500 clients.

This 30th Anniversary Exhibit features special recent and historic paintings, prints, drawings and sculpture by our treasured, represented artists, most of whom live in the Pacific Northwest United States: Andrew Alba, Orlando Almanza, Rebecca Boraz, Laurie Danial, Gwen Davidson, Benny Fountain, Emma Gerig, Kris Hargis, Takahiko Hayashi, Micah Hearn, Seiichi Hiroshima, Terrell James, Kevin Kadar, Brian Kershnik, Yoshihiro Kitai, V. Maldonado, Lauren Mantecón, Holly Osborne, Ritsuko Ozeki, Tom Prochaska, Daniel Robinson and Jake Scharbach; and secondary market artwork by Rick Bartow. The exhibit includes artworks ranging from monumental to miniature scale. The show is illustrated on the gallery website and we hope you'll visit during this milestone to look at our great artists' works.
